INTRODUCTION - 1

This DIRECTORY is a collection of material gathered by many volunteers who live and work in the Dorchester area. The goal of this DIRECTORY is to make the best up-to-date information available when needed. Service to the individual is a major goal. Knowledge gained and used productively should benefit most individuals and thereby affect the Dorchester area as well.

Since its establishment in 1941, the Dorchester Inter-Agency Council has sought to improve communication among the community's service organizations in order to more effectively meet the needs of all the people of Dorchester. Its membership, through the closer cooperation of the Council has encouraged, has in recent years also become more aware of the wider range of organizations in Dorchester representing a common purpose of community service. Thus, the DIRECTORY is intended to provide a means through which cooperation may be extended to include all other interested organizations.

It is hoped that the DIRECTORY, as a listing of resources, will, first of all, prove useful for the purpose of increasing our knowledge of the organizations located in Dorchester and of identifying the services that are available to its citizens. Every effort has been made to insure complete and accurate information.

Deepest thanks and appreciation to all the dedicated volunteers who gave freely many long hours of research and inquiry in order to obtain the much sought after information this DIRECTORY contains. The Rehabilitation Department of Boston State Hospital was given the major task of printing this second edition (P.R.O.P.). Once again we give them our deepest thanks and appreciation.

Mrs. Beatrice B. Tosi
Chairman, DIRECTORY Committee

HISTORY OF DORCHESTER

"Dorchester is a neighborhood of neighborhoods...a collection of communities, each clustered around a street or a corner or a park that rings with familiarity for generations of Dorchester residents. Some of these communities are stable; others are not; some are relatively free from problems; others are deluged with them..." wrote a Boston Globe reporter. Characteristics of the modern city--the excitement of diversity and the great difficulties of coordination--are found here.

Hopefully, Dorchester residents will continue a local tradition of meeting their social needs actively and creatively. The first Puritans to arrive from England in 1630 and the Ponkapoag Indians who were here made peaceable settlements. The Indians called their lands Mattapannock, and the Blue Hills and the Neponset River of the territory are shown in the seal. The Puritans gave the area a name in memory of the town in England from which some of them came, Dorchester.

The seal of Dorchester was adopted in 1865. Today, one hundred years later, Dorchester's population of over 157,000 persons is deciding the directions in which they want their community to move. The population, the problems, the pressures and the potential of the area have increased radically in a century. To the piety, learning and industry of the Puritans, the Pietate, Literis, Industria of the seal, we must now add concern, commitment and creativity.
